

HOW TO CONTACT AND GET APPROVAL FROM SUPERVISOR

To applicants :

Choosing an appropriate postgraduate supervisor is probably the most important step for any new postgraduate students before application.

To help YOU succeed in your application, here we've given some tips on how to find a prospective supervisor at SHU.

FIND THE PROFESSORS WITH

THE CORRECT EXPERTISE
IN YOUR AREA OF INTEREST.

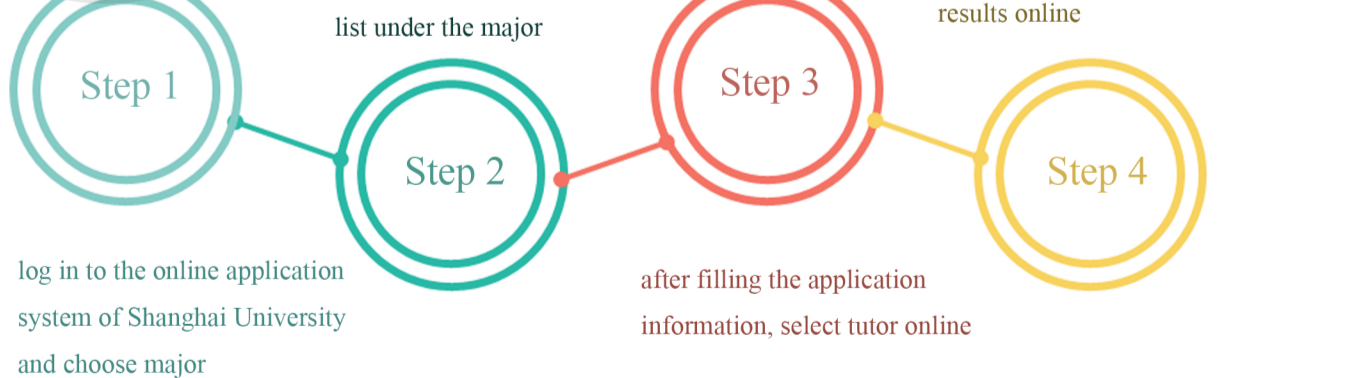

1. Contact by email attached with:

- CV : Your name, Academic background, Academic awards or highlights, Research experience, Why you wish to enter graduate studies, Why the faculty member's area of research will match with your research goals, Make it clear that you are familiar with their work and how their research.
- Research proposal

2. Speak in person

Consider meeting or talking with the potential supervisor, or travelling to tour the university

Good luck with your supervisor hunt!