About Shanghai University and SILC Business School

Shanghai University (SHU) is a member university of Project 211, co-sponsored by the Ministry of Education and Shanghai Municipality and is a research-intensive and comprehensive university. SHU has 26 colleges and 2 independent departments, covering a wide range of disciplines: natural science, engineering, literature, history, philosophy, economics, law, management, art, and more. There are more than 40000 full-time students in SHU, including 20448 undergraduates, 16954 postgraduates and 3201 international students from more than 150 countries.

Founded in 1994, SILC Business School (SILC) is a cooperative educational venture jointly owned by Shanghai University (SHU) in China and the University of Technology Sydney (UTS) in Australia. By bringing together the best of SHU and UTS, integrating high-quality educational resources from abroad, and adhering to strict quality assurance measures, SILC is one of the earliest Sino-foreign cooperative schools in China. In February 2020, SILC received the AACSB accreditation, placing SILC in the top 5% of business schools in the world.

About the Online English Language Bridging Program

The Online English Language Bridging program will provide international students an opportunity of direct entry into the first year of Undergraduate or Postgraduate study delivered in English language at Shanghai University. The Program is tailored for conditionally-admitted international students who are academically admissible but have not achieved the required IELTS or TOEFL scores, or cannot attend English Language Tests because of Covid-19. It prepares students to meet the English language proficiency requirements for their degree program at Shanghai University. Upon successfully completing all of the courses, the students will receive a certificate of completion and be admitted directly to the degree program. By attending the program, besides developing the English language and academic literacy skills, it will also help the students build a strong network with their peers and enhance their ability to participate in the wider university community.

Highlights of the Program

- Delivered by native-speaking SILC Senior English language lecturers.
- Live stream classes with a heavy emphasis on small group work.
- Academic counselling and academic workshops.
- Transcripts and a certificate will be issued to students who successfully complete the program.
- Eligible to receive SILC Bridging Program Scholarship.
