

Guide to Obtaining a Pre-Admission Notice

The Pre-admission Notice is issued by Shanghai University to international students who generally meet the admission requirements, and can be used to apply for the Chinese Government Scholarship under the CSC Type A (Bilateral Program) category.

STEPS

> Degree Programs

Applicants for undergraduate programs commencing in September 2026 must register for the CSCA test scheduled on December 21, 2025 or January 25, 2026.

> Non-degree Programs

For general and senior scholars' programs, please send the application materials to apply5@oa.shu.edu.cn to obtain the Pre-admission Notice.

NOTICE

- > After receiving the Pre-admission Notice, log in to the "Chinese Government Scholarship Information System", select the scholarship program (Type A), submit your application materials, and choose Shanghai University as your first preference to complete the application.
- > Please note that the Pre-admission Notice is not an official admission document, it cannot be used for visa applications or university registration. It is valid exclusively for applying for the Chinese Government Scholarship.
